

Cork & Olive files with FTC to franchise

Cork & Olive, a 2-year-old chain of neighborhood wine shops in Oldsmar, is registering with the Federal Trade Commission to sell franchise rights for several markets in Florida. The chain, which plans to more than double its company-owned store count in the Tampa Bay area to 14 this year, mostly sells its own labels of wine, spices and olive products.